Joining a Private Simulated Environment

Step 1: Create your account or log in

Go to the challenge website (www.cmegroup.com/challenge) and click on the LOG IN button, which is typically in the upper right-hand corner. This applies even if you don't have an existing account.

If you already have an account, proceed to log in.

If you are a new user, select the Create Account option. You will be required to verify your email address as part of the registration process.

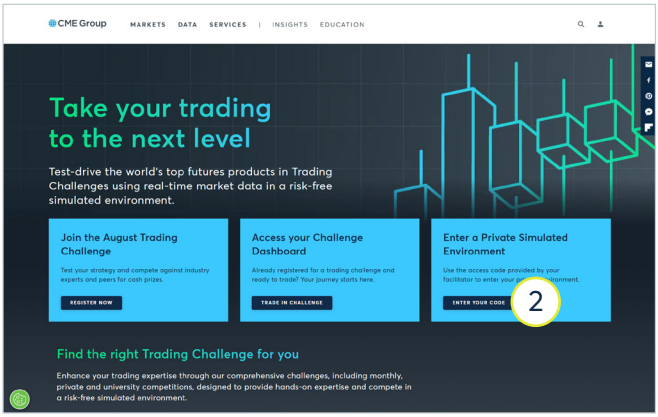

Account benefits

- Access exclusive content and premium features.
- Receive timely news and alerts.
- Get invitations to events.
- Utilize automatic refreshing of pricing data.
- Track your portfolio and simulate market shifts.

Step 2: Join your Private Simulated Environment

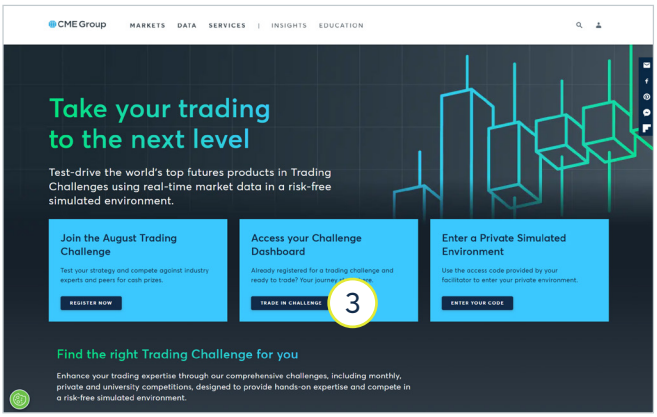

Once logged in, navigate to the Trading Challenge page. Find the Enter a Private Simulated Environment banner and select the ENTER YOUR CODE button.

1. Enter the custom promo code you received.
2. Agree to the terms and conditions by checking the corresponding box.
3. Choose a Display Name. This name will identify you on the event leaderboard.

Step 3: Access the dashboard

After joining, you can access all related pages, including your portfolio and the leaderboard, by clicking the Access Your Challenge Dashboard banner for the remainder of the Private Simulated Environment.
